

Children with developmental disabilities become Adults.

When they are young, CHILDREN and their families have a variety of educational and social programs and agencies to support them.

BUT, what happens when they become ADULTS? Are they included in the community, provided adequate housing, helped to develop their skills and gifts?

I Belong!
CAMPAIGN